

NEW YORK POST

Jennifer Gould Keil

GIMME SHELTER

trashing a $32,000-a-month apartment designed by architect Charles Gwathmey and owned by his filmmaker stepson, Eric Steel — but she has moved on to SoHo.

On Dec. 27, just in time to avoid the higher taxes in 2013, Huffington bought a marvelous Mercer Street luxury loft for around $8 million. "Arianna is just finishing decorating the apartment, and she is really happy there," a source says.

Arianna Huffington OWEN HOFFMANN/PatrickMcMullan.com

Media mogul Arianna Huffington might be persona non grata in Chelsea — where she is accused in a lawsuit of

Down at the W

Keller Williams Realty broker Luis Ortiz — who will co-star in Bravo's second season of "Million Dollar Listing New York," set to start airing next month — is renting a one-bedroom, one-bathroom, 747-square-foot furnished corner apartment at the Residences at W New York Downtown. That's the Financial District building where Jeremy Lin lived during the height of Linsanity, before the Knicks traded him to Houston.

Building amenities include a residents-only roof terrace, a lounge and the BLT Bar & Grill restaurant. Fellow residents include rapper Bow Wow.

Cruz control

Banking heavyweight Zoe Cruz, the former co-president of Morgan Stanley, just bought a $7.1 million, three-bedroom, three-bathroom abode at 912 Fifth Ave.